This is truly un-explainable... You experienced a little bit of it at the end of the interview with Dr. Dain Heer. These two ESCs were recorded together with a group of people from all over the world, as part.

You could call it a kind of meditation, if you require a word. You will be lying down, perceiving, receiving and being the energies of communion and of all other beings on the phone - and, if you're willing, maybe the entire Universe, starting with this beautiful planet of ours.

During this hour, you are invited to a way of being that you have never been before - with more connection to the earth, your life and your body. If you allow them to, these energies will stay with you for the coming weeks, months - and the rest of your life...
